

of serious harm to anyone, or (b) using such devices or chemical agents for purposes of controlling peaceful crowds; and

2. firing or deploying kinetic impact projectiles into a crowd for any purpose.

(Doc. 10.) The Court further ordered that the preliminary injunction shall be in effect from June 11, 2020, and continue until September 9, 2020, “unless otherwise dissolved, extended, or modified by the court.” Id.

Before the initial injunction expired on September 9, 2020, the Parties conferred and agreed to extend the preliminary injunction for another 30 days, from September 9, 2020, to October 9, 2020. The Court entered an order extending the preliminary injunction to continue in effect until October 9, 2020. (Doc. 22).

On October 9, 2020, the Parties filed a second joint stipulation agreeing to extend the preliminary injunction for another seven days, specifically from October 9, 2020, through October 16, 2020. (Doc. 23). As of the date of this filing, the court had not yet entered an order approving the Parties’ second joint stipulation and extending the preliminary injunction.

Since October 9, 2020, the Parties have continued their discussions and have conferred and hereby agree to extend the preliminary injunction for another thirty days from October 16, 2020, to allow them an opportunity to continue their discussions on additional language for two recently revised Dallas Police Department General Orders that may impact the terms of the preliminary injunction. Therefore, the Parties have agreed to extend the preliminary injunction specifically from October 9, 2020, through November 15, 2020. The Parties further agree to continue to waive the bond requirement pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(c).

The Parties pray that the Court approve their Third Joint Stipulation to Extend Agreed Preliminary Injunction, and extend the preliminary injunction as herein requested from October 9, 2020, through November 15, 2020, “unless otherwise dissolved, extended, or modified by the court.”
